NARRATIVE:

Jamal Kendrick has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include unlawful sex with a minor, multiple cases of domestic violence with injury, receiving stolen property, vehicle theft, identity theft, grand theft of property, possession of controlled substances for sale, several possession of controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for domestic violence with injury. Kendrick was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 21, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Kendrick qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
